CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again immediately.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown and with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it, and make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

GREEK VASES.

The Collection formed by the late Mr. Cecil Torr.

[SOLD BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTORS.]

Mr. Cecil Torr was a scholar of wide range and fine taste. He wrote on Egyptian chronology, on the history of Rhodes, on Greek music, and was one of the chief authorities on ancient ships; besides giving a charming picture of English country life in his three volumes Small Talk at Wreyland. His collection has the qualities of his scholarship: well-chosen, characteristic examples of many different classes.

LOT

- 1 A biconical Stand, $8\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, intact except for a small chip replaced, decorated with rows of rays, spiral and other patterns in black on the light ground, with red details. Greek work, perhaps Attic (Phaleron style), of about 700 B.C.
- 2 A black-figured pointed Aryballos, $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, the neck, mouth and handle modern, the body intact. The body is decorated with a row of animals—lion, goat, panther, swan; and below this, in a narrower band, four hounds running; on the shoulder of the vase, leaves; on the base, rays. A fine example of proto-Corinthian work, middle of the seventh century B.C.

4 Another, $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, intact, with a figure of a siren and a swan. Corinthian of the same style and date as the last

5 A black-figured Tripod-Pyxis, $2\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, 4 in. across, chips of one leg replaced but nothing missing, decorated with (A) a woman seated spinning and a maid facing her—a rare subject in the fabric, (B) and (C) sirens. Corinthian work, early sixth century B.C.

6 A BLACK-FIGURED PYXIS, spherical-bodied, with lid, 8 in. high, intact. The body is decorated with two rows of animals—lions, sphinxes, sirens, goats, deer, eagles, griffins, the lid with another similar row, the knob with a whirligig ornament. The mouth is supported by three female busts in relief. Found at Corinth in 1866. A very fine example of Corinthian vase-painting, about 600 B.C., particularly interesting for the link which the busts give with early Greek sculpture. [Pl. I] 2

7 A WHITE-GROUND OINOCHOE, 14 in. high, decorated in black with details reserved and in red: intact. On the shoulder and at the base, bold floral patterns; between them, a row of four wild goats grazing; on the neck, a cable pattern. This vase is published by Kinch, Vroulia, p. 202, fig. 83, and Rostovtzeff, History of the Ancient World, pl. 57, 4, and is one of the very finest examples of its class: Eastern Greek work (early "Camiran" style), seventh century B.C.: see E. R. Price, East Greek Pottery, p. 12. [Pl. I]

8 A PERFUME-POT in the form of the helmeted head of a warrior, $2\frac{5}{8}$ in. high, intact: pinkish clay, helmet and features black with red, white, and incised details. From the Forman collection, no. 271. Eastern Greek work of the end of the seventh century B.C., a very fine specimen of its class, the "Gorgoneion class": see Maximova, Vases Plastiques, pl. 20, 79, and E. R. Price, East Greek Pottery, pp. 37-8. [Pl. VIII]

- 9 ANOTHER, 3 in. high, unbroken, but chipped in places. Buff clay, with a thin white slip over it, and the details in black: a palmette on the frontal of the helmet, spirals on the bowl, key-pattern on the neck-piece, rosettes on the cheeks. Eastern Greek work of the same period as the last, but a different fabric: compare Maximova, pl. 25, 97. [Pl. VIII]
- 10 A black-figured Cup, 9 in. across, mended: the foot is ancient, but perhaps does not belong; inside, circles; outside, between palmettes (which are partly restored), the signature of the potter Tlēsōn, son of Nearchos, Τλεσωνουεραρχοεποιεσεν; Attic work of about 540 B.C.
- 11 Another, 6½ in. across, mended; outside, the lip is black; below it, between palmettes, four mounted youths on each side. Pretty Attic work of the same period as the last
- 12 Another, 5½ in. across, mended, decorated with palmettes. Attic work of the same period
- 13 Another, 5½ in. across, mended. Outside, on each side, a fawn between youths; above, tongues; below, myrtle and rays. Attic work of the same period
- 14 A BLACK-FIGURED CUP, 11 in. across, mended, but in fine preservation. Inside, a gorgoneion: on each side of the interior, between two large eyes, a warrior walking; at each handle, a fine design of a pair of ships. From the Rogers and Forman collections: Forman Cat., no. 322, with plate. The shape of the vase, with its short flaring foot, is that of Chalcidian cups (Rumpf, Chalkidische Vasen, p. 177), but the work is Attic of about 530 B.C. An unusual and attractive piece. [Pl. III]
- 15 A BLACK-FIGURED CUP, 12¼ in. across, mended. Inside a gorgoneion. On each side of the exterior, between large eyes, a frontal head of Dionysos with the face done in outline; at each handle a vine and a siren. From the collection of Lord Cadogan. Fine Attic work of about 530 B.C. [Pl. III]
- 16 A small black-figured mastoid Bowl with two handles, 3¾ in. high, intact. Between eyes, on one side, a youth seated, on the other a nose (?); at the handles, ivy-leaves. Attic work of about 525 B.C.

- 17 A tall black-figured Oinochoe ("olpe"), 9 in. high, intact, with picture of two men and woman and two youths. Attic work of about 540 B.C.
- 18 A black-figured Oinochoe, 8½ in. high, the mouth mended: Herakles runs towards a large pithos, club in hand; Athena sits facing him; in the middle, a tree. Attic work of the late sixth century B.C.
- 19 Another, 11 in. high, mended, and the handle restored. Herakles runs up to a pithos and lifts the stone lid; the centaur Pholos watches him, holding a kantharos in his hand, and over his shoulder a pine-branch with a hare fastened to it. Vigorous Attic work of the same period
- 20 Another, 9 in. high, intact. Herakles attacks an Amazon; a youth turns his back. Attic work of about 530 B.C.
- 21 Another, 9 in. high, the lip mended. Dionysos reclining with Ariadne, and a satyr playing the flute to them; Ariadne has a pair of castanets in her hand. Pretty Attic work of the late sixth century B.C.
- 22 A black-figured Lekythos, 13 in. high, mended, with a picture of three Amazons setting out on foot. Attic work of about 500 B.C.
- 23 Another, 12 in. high, intact, with two mounted Amazons setting out accompanied by dogs. Attic work of about 500 B.C.
- 24 Another, 6 in. high, intact, the painting on a white ground: Herakles mastering the Boar, and two women. Attic work of the same period
- 25 A BLACK-FIGURED HYDRIA, 14½ in. high, one of the side-handles replaced, otherwise in perfect condition. The main picture represents Herakles wrestling with Triton, the shoulder-picture a fight. Attic work of about 525 B.C. [Pl. II]

- 26 A BLACK-FIGURED NECK - AMPHORA, $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, mended, but nothing of importance missing. On one side, a mounted youth with a spear in his hand, attended by three youths, a man, and a bird; on the other a mounted man, a man bringing him an aryballos, a woman, a man, a youth, and a bird; under each handle, a winged horse. On the neck, men and youth running and standing. Restored, a small piece of the himation of a youth on A, a small piece of the horse's body on B, a foot of two figures on the neck. This is a splendid specimen of the work of the "Affecter," an Attic artist noted for his magnificent technique: see Karo in Journal of Hellenic Studies, pp. 147-163; and Beazley, Attic Black-figure: a Sketch, Appendix, where our vase is mentioned. About 530 B.C. [Pl. II]
- 27 A black-figured Neck-Amphora, $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, mended, and a slice of the shoulder on one side restored. On the obverse, Aeneas carrying Anchises from Troy, on the reverse Dionysos and two dancing satyrs. Attic work of about 500 B.C. The lid with it is Etruscan and does not belong 2
- 28 A lidded Perfume-Vase of "kothon" shape, $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, mended. The body is black, lip and lid are decorated with patterns. Good Attic work of about 530 B.C.
- 29 A RED-FIGURED CUP, 13 in. across, mended: repainted, the left knee of the figure inside and parts of two petals outside. Inside, a youth seated on a camp-stool, naked from the waist up, with a stick in one hand and several apples in the other. On each side of the exterior, between a pair of palmettes and a pair of eyes, two women making merry. They are lying naked on cushions; one is lifting a large amphora to her face with both hands; her flute-case hangs from her leg; the other is about to drink from a large wine-cup of curious form. From the Adrian Hope collection (Christie, July 13, 1894), no. 88. One of the figures on the exterior is published by Torr in his Ancient Music, p. 26. Admirable, amusing Attic work of about 525 B.C. [Pl. IV]
- 30 A RED-FIGURED CUP, $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. across, mended. Inside, a man reclining on a cushioned couch, with a cup in each hand, playing kottabos with his right. In the field, the semblance of letters.

Bought in Florence, 1883. Mentioned by Beazley, Attische Vasenmaler, p. 64, no. 15, and attributed by him to the great Attic painter Euthymides: about 520 B.C. [Pl. V]

- 31 A RED-FIGURED STAMNOS, $14\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, mended: on the obverse, two pairs, a man standing, sceptre in hand, and a woman offering him wine in a phiale; a man seated, in sceptre and phiale, and a woman filling the phiale from an oinochoe; between the first pair, $\chi\alpha\iota\rho\epsilon$, above the seated man, $\hbar\omicron\pi\alpha\iota\varsigma\kappa\alpha[\lambda\omicron\varsigma]$. Head, shoulders and right arm of the second woman are modern; on the obverse, two groups of a man conversing with a youth; inscriptions $\nu\alpha\iota\chi\iota$ and $\hbar\omicron\pi\alpha\iota\varsigma$: from the Hertz collection (1859); fine Attic work of about 480 B.C.; mentioned by Beazley in "Attische Vasenmaler," p. 158, no. 5, and attributed by him to the Syriskos painter [Pl. VI]
- 32 A RED-FIGURED HYDRIA, $14\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, mended. Triptolemos is seated in his winged car, holding three ears of corn in each hand. From the Forman collection, no. 338. Excellent Attic work of about 480 B.C.: mentioned by Beazley, Attische Vasenmaler, p. 123, no. 12, and attributed by him to the Troilos painter. [Pl. VI and VII]
- 33 A RED-FIGURED LEKYTHOS, $11\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, mended, with a picture of a boy seated playing the lyre; in the field, a bag, and the letter Σ . From Athens. Charming Attic work of about 480 B.C., by the the Tithonos painter (Beazley). [Pl. VIII]
- 34 A KANTHAROS IN THE FORM OF TWO HEADS set back to back, 8 in. high: part of the female neck is restored and the female face was broken across and is mended, without restoration; the other face is intact. One face is that of a satyr with his mouth open, smiling; the other that of a maenad. The satyr's beard is black with incised wavy lines on it, his lips and the inside of his nostrils are red, white is used for his teeth, the white of his eyes, and the broad fillet round his head. This fillet, and the hair over the maenad's forehead, are done in barbotine. White lines on the bowl of the vase. This vase is published by Beazley in Journal of Hellenic Studies, 1929: he points out that it is the fellow of a vase in

- the British Museum, E 786, which must be by the same modeller. Bought from Dr. Hartwig, 1893. One of the finest and most important vases of its class. Attic work of about 470 B.C. [Pl. IX]
- 35 An Oinochoe in the form of a female head, $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, the lip mended, otherwise in excellent preservation. Found at Tanagra. Lively Attic work of about 480 B.C.
- 36 A red-figured Kotyle, 3 in. high, intact : on one side a lion roaring, with a leaf above him, on the other a boar with a tree behind him. Said to be from Athens. Attic work, middle of the 5th Cent. B.C.
- 37 A black Kotyle, 5 in. high, mended, with black lines on a reserved band at the base, and red lines round the vase. Very delicate make. Attic work, 5th Cent. B.C.
- 38 A red-figured Pelike, 11 in. high, intact. On the obverse, a satyr, dressed in a himation and leaning on a stick, talking to a boy ; on the reverse, a youth with a stick moving up. From Rhodes. Attic work of about 460 B.C., by the Alkimachos painter (Beazley).
- 39 A red-figured Lekythos, $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, the mouth mended : a girl dancing the pyrrhic : she stoops with one knee close to the ground, holding spear in right hand, shield on left arm ; she is naked except for a loincloth and a helmet ; the inside of the shield is red with white for the cord, and the loincloth red with a white rosette : red so copious is rare at the time : in the field, in white, Ζεφυρία καλε, the only occurrence of this love name ; from the Joly de Bammerville collection (June, 1893), no. 4. Attic work of about 470 B.C. Published by Torr in "Revue Archéologique," and mentioned by Klein, "Lieblingsinschriften," p. 149, s. v. Zephyria
- 40 A RED-FIGURED HYDRIA, 13 in. high, the foot mended : a woman sits on a chair holding her knees, a youth faces her, Eros flies over her with a white sash in his hands, and a woman stands by holding a wool basket ; inscription, καλε, καλος, καλε ; from Capua, bought of Barone at Naples in 1883. Attic work of about 440 B.C., neighbourhood of Polygnotos (Beazley) [Pl. V]

- 41 A black Oinochoe, $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, intact, fine glaze, Attic work of the 5th Cent. B.C.; and a black Nolan Amphora, 11 in. high, intact, Campanian, 5th Cent. B.C. 2
- 42 A black Kantharos, 5 in. high, intact, fine shape and glaze, Attic work of about 425 B.C.
- 43 A black Kantharos, 5 in. high, intact, the mouth covered, an aperture in the bottom, Attic work of the 4th Cent. B.C.
- 44 A RED-FIGURED STEMLESS CUP, $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. across, mended, and the middle of one figure, with the arm of another, missing. The scenes refer to the relay-race with torches. Inside, an athlete with a racing-torch in his hand. Outside: (A) a torch-racer, torch in hand, bending, between another athlete and a naked youth leaning on his stick; (B) handing on the torch: two racers to right and one to left. The runners on the exterior all wear the usual pronged circlet. Bought at Sotheby's, June 18, 1890, lot 72. Attic work of about 420 B.C., manner of the Codrus painter (Beazley). [Pl. VIII]
- 45 A red-figured Lekythos, $12\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, intact. A woman with a box in one hand and an alabastron in the other. Bought in Athens, 1880. Attic work of about 420 B.C.
- 46 A red-figured Lekanis, $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. across, mended, with woman carrying wedding gifts, accompanied by Erotes. From the Oldfield collection: said to be from Campania. Attic work of the 4th Cent. B.C.
- 47 A black Kantharos, $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, the handles mended, with impressed ornamentation: Attic work of the 4th Cent. B.C.; another, intact, same height, period, and type of decoration, but Italiote; and a black oinochoe, 9 in. high, the body ribbed, a gilt garland round the neck, Italiote, 4th Cent. 3
- 48 A black stemless Cup, $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. across, intact, decorated with impressed strokes and palmettes enclosing a head of Arethusa among dolphins, taken from a mould of a Syracusan coin. Campanian "Arethusa cup" of the third century B.C. And a similar Cup, $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. across, intact, decorated with impressed palmettes only: same fabric 2

Another Property.

- 49 A LARGE RED-FIGURED OINOCHOE, $14\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, the handle replaced. The subject is a young warrior leaving home : he stands in the middle with spear and shield in his hand, while an older man offers him a helmet, and a woman holds phiale and oinochoe for the parting libation. Good Attic work of about 460 B.C.
- 50 A red-figured Column-Krater, $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, mended, and a small piece of the obverse missing. On the obverse, a symposion : a man with a lyre, a youth with a cup in his hand, both reclining, and a girl playing the flute. On the reverse, three youths. Attic work of about 430 B.C.
- 51 A LARGE RED-FIGURED CUP, $13\frac{3}{4}$ in. across; mended, and several parts missing, including foot and handles. The inside picture, which is almost intact, measures $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. across, and represents Herakles seated on a rock, holding bow and club, a young warrior, perhaps Iolaos or Theseus, standing beside him, and Athena leaning forward and looking at the warrior. The outside pictures are fragmentary : the upper parts of eight figures out of the ten are missing. The subject is the Death of Orpheus at the hands of the Thracian women. To the left, Orpheus leaves his rocky seat in alarm; a woman seizes his lyre and strikes at him with a spear or spit; a second woman shoots an arrow at him, and two others follow, one with a bow. The other side shows five Thracian men and youths in various attitudes, sitting and standing; they are all dressed in short chitons, with Thracian blanket-cloaks, fur boots, and fox-skin hats. An important Attic work of about 425 B.C. The subjects especially interesting
- 52 A red-figured Cup, 10 in. across, mended. Inside, a boy riding a horse; outside, two pictures, each of an athlete between two youths. Attic work of about 400 B.C.
- 53 A red-figured Oinochoe, with narrow beak-like mouth, $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, unbroken, the surface somewhat damaged in places : bearing a figure of Eros riding a fawn. Fine Attic work of about 420 B.C.

56.171.57

- 54 A KANTHAROS, with the lower part in the form of two heads, $9\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, one of the ears mended. The heads are those of a satyr and a maenad: the curls of both heads, and the satyr's ivy-wreath are added in barbotine; traces of red on the satyr's mouth, eyes, ears. The bowl of the kantharos is decorated with six figures of woman, three on each side, in red-figure; one holding a perfume-vase, a second a head-dress, a third a wreath. Remarkable Attic work of about 410 B.C.
- 55 A Kantharos, with the lower part in the form of two female heads, $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, mended, and part of the bowl missing; the surface is corroded. The heads are of the same type as the female head in the last number. The bowl is decorated on each side with a figure of a woman seated between two others standing. Attic work of about 410 B.C.
- 56 A RED-FIGURED BELL-KRATER, $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, intact and finely preserved. On the obverse, four youths are leading a bull to sacrifice; one youth holds the restive bull by the horns, another by the tail, a third youth turns to help, and a fourth runs in front. The bull's head is bound with a white fillet; two of the youths have fillets round their shoulders; two bear torches, three are wearing a headdress with upright projections. The fourth youth is seen from the waist up only, his lower parts being concealed by the bull; also partly concealed is the building in the middle, the temple to which the bull is being led. A female figure, perhaps Victory, completes the composition. On the other side of the vase is the contest of which the sacrifice is the consequence: three youths are running; two of them have race-torches in their hands; the third is ready to take the torch of the second: all three wear the same headdress as on the obverse. This vase gives one of the most interesting representations of the lampadedromia that have come down to us, and is a very good specimen of the florid style in Attic vase-painting: the date is about 400 B.C.
- 57 A red-figured Lekanis, $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. across, mended, and part of one handle missing. On the lid, two groups, each of Eros pursuing a woman. Attic work of the fourth century B.C.
- 58 A red-figured Bell-Krater, $13\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, mended. On one side, Nike driving a four-horse chariot; on the other, three youths. Attic work of the fourth century B.C.

- 59 A red-figured Bell-Krater, 15 in. high, mended; on the obverse is Aphodite mounted on a swan, accompanied by Eros, Hermes and woman; on the reverse, three youths. Attic work of the fourth century B.C.
- 60 A red-figured Kotyle, 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, mended: on each side a maenad between two silens. Attic work of the late fifth century B.C.
- 61 A red-figured Oinochoe, 11 in. high, the lip slightly chipped, otherwise unbroken. A woman, two men, and a youth, at an altar, one of the men with a torch in his hand. Attic work of the fourth century B.C.

BRONZES, ETC.

- 62 A bronze Simpulum; a Vase Handle terminating in a mask of Silenus; and part of a Candelabrum 3
- 63 A Candelabrum, the stem surmounted by four branches ending in leaves, in the centre is the figure of an owl, below this is an inverted saucer-shaped bowl, the base terminates in three claw feet with palmettes between, 40 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. high, 4th Cent. B.C. 2
